SECTION 22. LEGISLATIVE MANAGEMENT STUDY - ENERGY CONVERSION OR TRANSMISSION FACILITY - ENVIRONMENTAL MITIGATION. During the 2023-24 interim, the legislative management shall consider studying plans for mitigation of adverse wildlife and environmental impacts and monetary payments made to state agencies, contractors, nongovernmental organizations, and others by applicants or other persons for mitigation during

1 the siting and operation of energy conversion or transmission facilities. The study must include 2 consideration of the provisions of law that affect the ability of developers to effectively mitigate 3 adverse wildlife habitat and environmental impacts, applicant payments used for the purchase 4 of perpetual or nonperpetual conservation easements, the distinction between an adverse direct 5 environmental effect or an adverse indirect environmental effect, methods to monetarily quantify 6 adverse direct or adverse indirect environmental effects, and alternative programs that may be 7 used or developed for the mitigation of adverse wildlife and environmental effects. The 8 legislative management shall report its findings and recommendations, together with any 9 legislation necessary to implement the recommendations, to the sixty-ninth legislative assembly.

10 SECTION 23. LEGISLATIVE MANAGEMENT STUDY - TRANSFER OF AGRICULTURE

11 EDUCATION PROGRAMS. During the 2023-24 interim, the legislative management shall 12 consider studying the feasibility and desirability of transferring agriculture education programs in 13 the department of career and technical education to the agriculture commissioner. The study 14 must include an analysis of each program, duties and responsibilities of the programs and 15 department of career and technical education staff, the potential to gain administrative and 16 resource efficiencies if the programs are transferred to the agriculture commissioner, and future 17 staffing, operating, and equipment needs of the programs. The legislative management shall 18 report its findings and recommendations, together with any legislation required to implement the 19 recommendations, to the sixty-ninth legislative assembly.
