SECTION 15. A new section to chapter 43-29 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Exceptions to practice of veterinary technology.

1. The following individuals may not be considered to be engaging in the practice of veterinary technology in this state:
  - a. An individual who treats an animal owned by the individual or the individual's regular employer, except if ownership of the animal was transferred or otherwise manipulated to avoid the requirements of this chapter.
  - b. An individual who conducts experiments in scientific research in the development of methods, techniques, or treatment, directly or indirectly applicable to the problems of medicine, and who in connection with these activities uses animals.
  - c. A student enrolled in an approved program of veterinary technology performing duties or actions assigned by an instructor or working under the direct supervision of a veterinarian.
  - d. An employee of the United States or this state while in the performance of duties as employees.

- e. An employee of a veterinarian performing duties under the direction or supervision of the veterinarian responsible for the employee's performance.
- f. An individual lecturing or giving instructions or demonstrations within the individual's area of professional expertise in connection with a continuing education course or seminar.
- g. An individual who is not a graduate of an approved program of veterinary technology, enrolled in an equivalency program of veterinary technology as approved by the board, performing duties or actions assigned by an instructor in an approved program of veterinary technology.
- h. An individual who administers medication or treatment as prescribed by a veterinarian.
- i. An individual who performs gratuitous services for an animal in a life-threatening situation.

2. This section may not be construed to protect individuals from animal cruelty laws in this state.

SECTION 16. AMENDMENT. Section 43-29-14 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-29-14. Refusal, suspension, and revocation of license and ~~certificate~~ - Reinstatement and relicense.

1. ~~The state board of veterinary medical examiners may refuse to issue a license or certificate of registration~~temporary license, or may suspend or revoke a license and ~~certificate of registration~~or temporary license, upon any of the following grounds:
  - a. Fraud or deception in procuring the license, including conduct that violates the security or integrity of any licensing examination.
  - b. The use of advertising or solicitation that is false, misleading, or otherwise determined unprofessional under rules adopted by the board.
  - c. ~~Habitual intemperance in the use of intoxicating liquors, or habitual addiction to the use of morphine, cocaine, or other habit-forming drugs~~The determination that an individual is an impaired veterinarian as defined by section 43-29.01.1 or an impaired veterinary technician as defined by section 43-29-01.1.
  - d. ~~Immoral, unprofessional, or dishonorable~~Unprofessional ~~conduct manifestly disqualifying the licensee from practicing veterinary medicine as defined by the rules adopted by the board, or violating the code of ethics adopted by the board by rule.~~
  - e. Incompetence, gross negligence, or other malpractice in the practice of veterinary medicine or veterinary technology.
  - f. Employment of unlicensed ~~persons~~individuals to perform work that under this chapter can lawfully be done only by ~~persons~~individuals licensed to practice veterinary medicine or veterinary technology.
  - g. Fraud or dishonest conduct in applying or reporting diagnostic biological tests, inspecting foodstuffs, or in issuing ~~health certificates~~regulatory documents.
  - h. ~~Failure of the licensee to keep the premises and equipment used in the licensee's practice in a reasonably clean and sanitary condition and failure to use reasonably sanitary methods in the practice of veterinary medicine~~ or veterinary technology.
  - i. Violation of the rules adopted by the board.

- j. Conviction of an offense determined by the board to have a direct bearing upon ~~a person's~~ the ability of an individual to serve the public as a veterinarian or veterinary technician, or when the board determines, following conviction of any offense, that ~~a person~~ an individual is not sufficiently rehabilitated under section 12.1-33-02.1.
  - k. Willful or repeated violations of this chapter or any rule adopted by the board.
  - l. Failure to report, as required by law, or making false report of, any contagious or infectious disease.
  - m. Cruelty to animals as defined under chapter 36-21.2.
  - n. Revocation of a license to practice veterinary medicine or veterinary technology by another state jurisdiction on grounds other than nonpayment of a registration renewal fee.
  - o. The use, prescription, or dispensing of any veterinary prescription drug, or the prescription or extra-label use of any over-the-counter drug, in the absence of a valid veterinarian-client-patient relationship, except as provided by section 43-29-19.
2. ~~Any person~~ An individual whose license has been revoked may apply to the board for reinstatement and relicensure one year after the date of revocation. The board may reissue a license if the board is satisfied the applicant is qualified to practice veterinary medicine or veterinary technology, meets the existing requirements for licensure, and will comply with the rules regarding the practice of veterinary medicine or veterinary technology.

SECTION 17. AMENDMENT. Section 43-29-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-29-15. Complaints - Investigations.

- 1. ~~Any person~~ An individual may file a written complaint with the board setting forth the specific charges upon which the complaint is made. Upon receiving a complaint, the board shall notify the veterinarian or veterinary technician of the complaint and request a written response from the veterinarian or veterinary technician. The board may adopt rules establishing a peer review committee for the purpose of investigating complaints and providing recommendations to the board. A veterinarian or veterinary technician who is the subject of an investigation by the board shall cooperate fully with the investigation. Cooperation includes responding fully and promptly to any reasonable question raised by or on behalf of the board relating to the subject of the investigation and providing copies of records when reasonably requested by the board. Failure to cooperate in the investigative process may be grounds for disciplinary action against the veterinarian or veterinary technician.
- 2. ~~To pursue the investigation, the board may subpoena and examine witnesses and records, including medical records, copy, photograph, or take samples. The board may require the veterinarian to give statements under oath, to submit to a physical or psychological examination, or both, by a physician or other qualified evaluation professional selected by the board if it appears to be in the best interest of the public that this evaluation be secured. After review of the complaint, the veterinarian's response, and information obtained in the investigation, the board shall determine if there is a reasonable basis to believe the allegations are true and that the allegations constitute a violation of this chapter or the rules of the board. If the board determines there is a reasonable basis to believe the allegations are true and the allegations constitute a violation of this chapter or the rules of the board, the board shall take appropriate action. If a reasonable basis is not found by the board, the board shall notify the complaining party and the veterinarian in writing:~~
  - a. Subpoena and examine witnesses, records, medical records, copy, photograph, or take samples;

- b. Require the veterinarian or veterinary technician to give statements under oath;
  - c. Require the veterinarian or veterinary technician to submit to a physical examination, chemical dependency evaluation, or psychological examination by a physician or other qualified evaluation professional selected by the board if there is reasonable cause to believe the veterinarian or veterinary technician is impaired as defined by section 43-29-01.1; and
  - d. Require the veterinarian or veterinary technician to enroll in a treatment or monitoring program approved by the board if the board determines in good faith enrollment would be beneficial to the veterinarian or veterinary technician or to protect the public.
- 3. After review of the complaint, the response from the veterinarian or veterinary technician, and information obtained in the investigation, the board shall determine if there is a reasonable basis to believe the allegations are true and if the allegations constitute a violation of this chapter or the rules of the board. If the board determines there is a reasonable basis to believe the allegations are true and the allegations constitute a violation of this chapter or the rules of the board, the board shall take appropriate action. If a reasonable basis is not found by the board, the board shall notify the complaining party and the veterinarian or veterinary technician in writing.
  - 4. Unless the board proceeds with a disciplinary action, the complaint, the response, and any records received by the board during an investigation of a complaint under this section are exempt records, as defined in section 44-04-17.1.
  - 5. A veterinarian or veterinary technician shall report in good faith any impaired veterinarian or impaired veterinary technician as defined by section 43-29-01.1.
  - 6. The board may adopt rules as necessary to carry out this section.

SECTION 18. A new section to chapter 43-29 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Self-reporting and self-referral.

- 1. A veterinarian or veterinary technician may voluntarily self-report or self-refer to a treatment or monitoring program approved or contracted by the board to seek assistance for a potential or existing impairment due to a mental health or substance use disorder.
- 2. A veterinarian or veterinary technician who under this section voluntarily seeks assistance from a treatment or monitoring program in assessing or treating a potential or existing impairment will not be reported to the board solely on the basis of self-reporting or self-referral.
- 3. The identity of the veterinarian or veterinary technician and findings of the evaluation only may be reported to the board when:
  - a. A veterinarian or veterinary technician refuses to undergo an evaluation by the program;
  - b. The evaluation reveals evidence of an impairment that could affect the ability of the veterinarian or veterinary technician to practice, or constitutes a threat to the safety of a patient or the public; or
  - c. The veterinarian or veterinary technician refuses to cooperate with a treatment plan, monitoring and followup, or aftercare directed by the program, including a recommendation about continuing practice.
- 4. Participation in the program does not protect a veterinarian or veterinary technician from disciplinary action resulting from a complaint.

5. A veterinarian or veterinary technician who self-reports or self-refers to the board for a potential or existing impairment may be referred by the board to a treatment or monitoring program in a manner prescribed by the board by rule, and subsequent reporting by the program to the board is at the discretion of and in the manner prescribed by the board.
6. A veterinarian or veterinary technician who has completed a treatment or monitoring program and is in full compliance with all parts of the treatment or monitoring plan and aftercare, may answer in the negative to a question on an application to the board for licensure or licensure renewal regarding current impairment by the condition for which the veterinarian or veterinary technician completed treatment. However, any recurrence of the impairment or the existence of other potential impairments that are not currently known to the program must be reported on the application.
7. Notwithstanding section 44-04-18, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all records related to participation in a treatment or monitoring program established under this section containing identifying information about a veterinarian or veterinary technician are confidential and only may be disclosed when:
  - a. Disclosure is reasonably necessary for the accomplishment of the purposes of intervention, rehabilitation, referral assistance, or supportive services;
  - b. Disclosure is required by law in a legal or administrative hearing or requested by the board for a formal disciplinary action;
  - c. Disclosure is necessary regarding a veterinarian's or veterinary technician's noncompliance with the program;
  - d. A staff member is handling records for administrative purposes as provided under this section; and
  - e. A person is participating in treatment or program monitoring, evaluations, or followup.
8. A person in attendance at any meeting of a treatment or monitoring program is not required to testify as to the content of any findings, committee discussions, or proceedings, unless requested by the board for a disciplinary proceeding or regarding noncompliance with the program.

SECTION 19. A new section to chapter 43-29 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Immunity from liability.

The following individuals are immune from liability in any civil or criminal proceeding brought against the individual for any action occurring while the individual was acting in good faith within the scope of the individual's respective capacity:

1. A member of the board;
2. A member of a peer review committee;
3. A witness testifying in a proceeding or hearing authorized under this chapter or administrative proceeding held under chapter 28-32;
4. A treating professional;
5. An individual who files a complaint pursuant to this Act; and
6. An individual reporting an impaired veterinarian or impaired veterinary technician as defined by section 43-29-01.1.

SECTION 20. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 43-29-16 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. In any order or decision issued by the board in which disciplinary action is imposed against a ~~licensee~~veterinarian or veterinary technician, the board may direct the ~~licensee~~veterinarian or veterinary technician to pay the board a sum not to exceed the reasonable and actual costs, including attorney's fees, incurred by the board in the investigation and prosecution of the case. ~~When applicable, the licensee's license may be suspended until the costs are paid to the board.~~

SECTION 21. AMENDMENT. Section 43-29-16.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-29-16.1. Abandonment of animals by ~~owner~~client - Disposal of remains.

1. Any animal placed in the custody of a ~~licensed doctor of veterinary medicine~~veterinarian for treatment, boarding, or other care, which is abandoned by its ~~owner or its owner's agent~~the client for a period of more than ten days after a written notice, by registered or certified letter, return receipt requested, is ~~given~~mailed to the ~~owner or its owner's agent~~client at the last-known address, may be turned over to the custody of the nearest humane society or dog pound in the area or disposed of as such custodian may deem proper.
2. The ~~giving~~service of notice to the ~~owner, or the agent of the owner~~client, of such animal by the ~~doctor of veterinary medicine~~veterinarian, as provided in subsection 1, shall relieve the ~~doctor of veterinary medicine~~veterinarian and any custodian to whom such animal may be given of any further liability for disposal; ~~it is further provided that such~~. Such procedure by the ~~licensed doctor of veterinary medicine~~veterinarian does not constitute grounds for disciplinary procedure under this chapter.
3. For the purpose of this section, the term "abandoned" means to forsake entirely or to neglect or refuse to provide or perform the care and support of an animal by its ~~owner or its owner's agent~~the client; such abandonment constitutes the relinquishment of all rights and claim by the owner of such animal.
4. Any animal remains that are left in the possession of a veterinarian and have not been claimed by the client for a period of more than ten days after a written notice, by registered or certified letter, return receipt requested, is mailed to the client at the last-known address, may be disposed of by the veterinarian as deemed proper.

SECTION 22. AMENDMENT. Section 43-29-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

43-29-17. Unlawful practice of veterinary medicine - Penalty - Civil remedy.

~~Any person who~~

1. An individual is guilty of a class B misdemeanor if the individual:
4. a. Practices veterinary medicine, ~~surgery, or dentistry~~ in this state without compliance with the provisions of this chapter;
2. b. Willfully and falsely claims or pretends to have or hold a ~~certificate of registration~~license or temporary license issued by the state board of ~~veterinary medical examiners~~; or
3. c. Willfully and falsely, with intent to deceive the public, claims or pretends to be a graduate of, or to hold a degree or diploma showing the ~~satisfactory completion of a course in veterinary science in a school, college, or university~~ recognized from a program of veterinary medicine approved by the board; is guilty of a class B misdemeanor.

2. In addition to the criminal penalty provided, the civil remedy of injunction is available to restrain and enjoin violations of any provisions of this chapter without proof of actual damages sustained by ~~any person~~ an individual, upon application and unanimous vote of all members of the state board of ~~veterinary medical examiners~~.

SECTION 23. A new section to chapter 43-29 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Unlawful practice of veterinary technology - Penalty - Civil remedy.

1. An individual is guilty of a class B misdemeanor if the individual:
  - a. Practices veterinary technology in this state without compliance with the provisions of this chapter;
  - b. Willfully and falsely claims or pretends to have or hold a license issued by the board; or
  - c. Willfully and falsely, with intent to deceive the public, claims or pretends to be a graduate of, or to hold a degree or diploma from, a program of veterinary technology approved by the board.
2. In addition to the criminal penalty provided, the civil remedy of injunction is available to restrain and enjoin violations of any provisions of this chapter without proof of actual damages sustained by an individual, upon application and unanimous vote of all members of the board.

SECTION 24. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 43-29-19 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. Other than a controlled substance, a licensed veterinarian may dispense a veterinary prescription drug without establishing a veterinarian-client-patient relationship if:
  - a. The drug is prescribed by a licensed veterinarian or by a ~~veterinarian licensed in another jurisdiction~~ foreign practitioner who has established a veterinarian-client-patient relationship;
  - b. The prescribing veterinarian or foreign practitioner has an inadequate supply of the drug, failure to dispense the drug would interrupt a therapeutic regimen, or failure to dispense the drug would cause an animal to suffer; ~~and~~
  - c. The dispensing veterinarian verifies the prescription with the prescribing veterinarian or foreign practitioner; and
  - d. The dispensing veterinarian is not presumptively aware of any disciplinary action against the prescribing veterinarian or foreign practitioner.

SECTION 25. A new section to chapter 43-29 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Veterinary telemedicine - Teleadvice and teletriage.

1. A veterinarian shall establish a veterinarian-client-patient relationship by virtue of a medically appropriate and timely in-person examination of a patient by the veterinarian, or by a timely in-person visit to the premises where the patient is managed or resides before the provision of veterinary telemedicine services.
2. The provision of teleadvice or teletriage by a veterinarian does not require the prior establishment of a veterinarian-client-patient relationship.

3. A veterinary technician may perform teleadvice and teletriage without instructions from a veterinarian.
4. The board may adopt rules as necessary to carry out this section.

SECTION 26. A new section to chapter 43-29 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Source of data.

The board shall be authorized to rely upon the expertise of and verified data gathered and stored by not-for-profit organizations that share in the public protection mission of the board including the American association of veterinary state boards to make determinations under this chapter and to promote uniformity and administrative efficiencies.

SECTION 27. A new section to chapter 43-29 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Location of the practice of veterinary medicine.

The provision of veterinary services to a patient in this state which fall within the standard of practice of veterinary medicine regardless of the means by which the services are provided or the physical location of the person providing those services, constitutes the practice of veterinary medicine in this state and is subject to regulation by the board.

SECTION 28. A new section to chapter 43-29 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Indirect practice without a license for foreign practitioners.

A foreign practitioner may provide veterinary services in this state which fall within the scope of practice designated by the foreign practitioner's license and by this chapter without obtaining a license from the board if the services are provided through telehealth and are a continuation of an existing veterinarian-client-patient relationship as established under this chapter.

SECTION 29. A new section to chapter 43-29 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Recognized animal services - Exceptions.

1. The provision of a recognized animal service does not constitute the practice of veterinary medicine if provided by an individual who is not a veterinarian or veterinary technician and not otherwise excepted from the practice of veterinary medicine under section 43-29-13.
2. For purposes of this section, "recognized animal service" means:
  - a. Grooming;
  - b. Training or conditioning;
  - c. Horseshoeing or farrier work;
  - d. Massage therapy or acupressure;
  - e. Microchip implantation; and
  - f. An accepted livestock management practice.

3. This section does not permit an individual who is not a veterinarian to diagnose, prescribe, or perform surgical procedures, other than surgical procedures considered to be an accepted livestock management practice.
4. The exceptions provided under this section do not extend to any other animal services.

SECTION 30. REPEAL. Sections 43-29-09, 43-29-10, 43-29-11, and 43-29-12.1 of the North Dakota Century Code are repealed.
